Frankfurt, 25.8.2022 Effective 1 January 2023, the Supervisory Board of STRABAG Property and Facility Services GmbH (STRABAG PFS) has appointed Dr Marion Henschel as Chairwoman of the Management Board. Martin Schenk is not extending his contract and will leave the company at his own request on 31 December 2022.

Marion Henschel has been responsible for the STRABAG PFS group and all associated companies together with Martin Schenk since 2016. "With Marion Henschel, the future of the German property and facility management business is in the very best hands. With her strong focus on digitisation and sustainability, she is strongly driving forward the central topics for future-oriented management of existing properties," says Thomas Birtel, CEO of STRABAG SE.

Martin Schenk is leaving the company after 29 years in various positions at STRABAG PFS and its predecessor company DeTeImmobilien. "Martin Schenk has rendered outstanding services, especially recently, to the successful strategic and organisational realignment of STRABAG PFS group. On behalf of the entire supervisory board and the management board of STRABAG SE, I would like to thank him for his many years of service," said Thomas Birtel.

The management of STRABAG PFS consists of six people in the future. In the operative business, Marion Henschel will be supported by Dirk Brandt and Torsten May (both Managing Directors Key Accounts), Marko Bohm (Managing Director Real Estate Management) as well as Andrea Jager and Mike Kirschnereit (both Managing Directors Area Germany).
